

Paulding County Farm Bureau 4-H Camp Scholarship Application

(Applications due 5/12/15)

The Paulding County Farm Bureau is pleased to offer Paulding County 4-H Youth, whose parents are members of the Paulding County Farm Bureau, the opportunity for a 4-H Camp Palmer Scholarship. All applications will be reviewed and scored by the Paulding County Farm Bureau Board with assistance of the Paulding County 4-H Extension Educator. The scholarship amount will be determined by the Paulding County Farm Bureau Board of Directors. This scholarship is open to both campers and camp counselors.

Applications Due: Applications are to be submitted to the Paulding County Extension Center no later than 4:30 p.m. on the due date.

Applications received after this date will not be considered.

Applications must be completed in the 4-Her's own handwriting.

Camper / Camp Counselor Name: _____ Age: (as of Jan. 1) _____

Address: _____
Street City State Zip

Parents' Name (as listed on the Farm Bureau Membership form): _____

Parent Farm Bureau Membership ID: _____ Phone: _____

School: _____ Grade (14/15 School Year): _____ Club: _____

Years in 4-H: _____ Years at 4-H Camp: _____ Years I Have Received This Scholarship: _____

1. Why do you like the best about being in 4-H?

2. What 4-H activity or project did you enjoy the most last year? Write at least two sentences about why you enjoyed it most.

3. What other 4-H and Community Activities did you participated in the 2015 Calendar Year.

(i.e. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Sports, Band, Choir, Church Youth Group, 4-H demonstration/speaking contest, 4-H style/nutrition revue, officer training, non 4-H community service, county/state fair, etc.)

4. What 4-H community service work did you do last year and how did it make a difference.

5. Why do you want to go to 4-H camp?

I am attending camp as a (please circle one):

CAMPER

CAMP COUNSELOR

Applicant's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Parent's Signature: _____ Date: _____