2014 Banquet

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF FOOD, AGRICULTURAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

It's Been a Busy Year...

January: Organizational meeting kick-off.

February: It was very cold and we had many inches of snow!

March: Started new Master Gardener Volunteer class in Defiance, monthly meeting

April: Updated our county manual, held initial meetings for the community gardens at The Well in Paulding, determined layout for Reservoir Park in Paulding, monthly meeting, Raker plant dump day, Raker greenhouse tour, Defiance seminar, Plant swap with Defiance with Raker extras, busy planting for the annual sale, Antwerp Village Planters.

Knowing that you are helping to create a peaceful world and a safer planet is only a fraction of the pride that a volunteer should feel every time they lend a helping hand.

May: Cloverbud Day (theme Butterflies), Hotline opened every Tuesday, PLANT SALE, donated leftover plants to The Gardens of Paulding, Vancrest of Antwerp, Vancrest of Payne, Care and Share Food Pantry, and The Well; planted Reservoir Park, and updated the landscaping at Blue Building at the fairgrounds

June: Hotline at the Senior Citizen's Day at the Fair, judged 4-H Crop and Garden tour, landscaped at Oakwood Park, landscaped at Fort Brown, landscaped at Payne Park, Strait Gate Greenhouse tour

July: Tree assessment of Fire Blight in Payne, Identification of tree at the Black Swamp Nature Center with 4-H Youth

August: Raker Summer Tour and Trial Garden visit, planted at Black Swamp Nature Center donated plants from The Greenhouse Effect, tree assessment at The Gardens of Paulding

September: Hotline ended; updated Native Garden at the Black Swamp Nature Center, Big 5 Soil and Water Day Session with over 250 youth on Native and Invasive Plants, Plant Swap with Defiance County

October: Hosted Tree Diagnostic and Tree Pruning Clinic, assessed fruit trees with local family, landscaped the Habitat for Humanity Houses, started Grover Hill Elementary education garden reconstruction project.

November: Historical Society Christmas Tree on "A caroling we will go" for Festival of Trees

December: Annual Banquet

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE

- Pauline Borroff, volunteer since 2002, dedicated a at home greenhouse to helping make the Paulding County Master Gardener Volunteer Plant Sale a huge success. Her hours and dedication to this program made Paulding County a better place.

WELCOME

- Marsha Cooper, from Payne, is a retired teacher and excited about being a volunteer. Marsha loves to tend her flower garden and vegetable garden.
- Nolan Shisler, from Oakwood, is a retired insurance agent. He likes to vegetable garden and do yard work. He loves to volunteer and travel in his free time.
